

LEARNING AND TEACHING...

The Expectations...

During a lesson you should expect...

Pupils to be aware of their targets for the current subject

Pupils and teachers should adhere to the UNCRC – An ethos of 'Respect for All' should be evident.

Classroom/ areas should be tidy, uncluttered and resources should be well labelled. A resources box should be available.

The behaviour management policy should be applied consistently in the classroom.

The use of praise should be evident through various forms- verbal / written

Differentiation, pace and challenge should be taken into account when work and tasks are set.

